Dear Chris,

RE: Consultation on information disclosure by the Office for Legal Complaints (OLC) and the Legal Services Board (LSB)

Thank you for sending us the consultation document concerning the disclosure of information by the OLC and LSB. We have considered the consultation document and we set out our response to question 1 as this specifically relates to the Office of Fair Trading. We have not responded to the other questions as they relate to other organisations.

Q1: Do you agree that the OFT should be included in a section 152(3)(g) order for the purposes of administering the consumer credit licensing scheme and monitoring the fitness of people undertaking estate agency work?

We confirm that we agree that the OFT should be included in a section 152(3)(g) order. The consultation document clearly identifies the importance of the OLC submitting complaints information to the OFT in connection with the OFT's work under the consumer credit scheme and the enforcement of the Estate Agents Act 1979.

Thank you for providing us with an opportunity to respond to your consultation.

Yours sincerely,
